

READ ACROSS CANADA

Welcome to our new book club at the Didsbury Library. From October until May we are going to explore fiction set in different places spanning Canada; each month will feature an area. Read the suggested choices, or find a title on your own.

Currently, due to AHS precautions, we will be meeting virtually through a Facebook group. Please join the group and share your opinions, join in discussions and recommend new reads.

OCTOBER: BRITISH COLUMBIA

Titles to try...

No Fixed Address by Susin Nielsen
Awake and Dreaming by Kit Pearson
The Ghost Collector by Allison Mills

NOVEMBER: PRAIRIE PROVINCES

Titles to try...

A Girl Called Echo by Katherena Vermette
Kung Fu Master by Marty Chan
Surviving the City by Tasha Spillett

DECEMBER: THE NORTH

Titles to try...

The Call of the Wild by Jack London
Fatty Legs Christy Jordan-Fenton
I am Still Alive by Kate Alice Marshall

DID YOU KNOW?

Farley Mowat's book have been translated into 52 different languages.

Lucy Maud Montgomery has twice had a commemorative stamp designed in her honor.

Alice Munro received the Nobel Prize for literature in 2013.

Love You Forever by Robert Munsch has sold over 15,000,000 copies.

The first literary journal in Canada was published in Halifax in 1789, the Nova-Scotia Magazine.

READ ACROSS CANADA

CONTACT INFORMATION

Maia Foster
Didsbury Library Program
Coordinator
403-335-3142
mfoster@prl.ab.ca

CAN YOU READ
ACROSS CANADA?
ADD THE TITLES YOU
READ HERE AND
MAP YOUR WAY THROUGH OUR LITERARY LANDSCAPE.

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Title:

Rating ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆